@LCWBELGIUM

Dear athletes,

Welcome to the fifth edition of Long Course Weekend Belgium – Festival of Champions, taking place from Friday 26 to Sunday 28 September 2025 in vibrant Nieuwpoort.

What started five years ago as a sporting adventure has now grown into an international celebration of sport and experience. More than 8,000 athletes from home and abroad gather here to swim, cycle, and run together – each in their own way, each with their own goal. The Festival of Champions may feel like a world championship, but in our philosophy, there is only one truth: everyone who takes part is a champion.

The strength of Long Course Weekend Belgium lies in its diversity. On Friday, we dive into the iconic inner harbour of Nieuwpoort – a unique setting unmatched anywhere else. On Saturday, we ride from the coast across the border into France, through the hilly Kemmelberg region and past more than forty war memorials. A course that leaves not only a physical but also an emotional impression. And on Sunday, we finish with the running races through the polders of Nieuwpoort, where speed, atmosphere, and competition come together. Three days of sport, three days of emotion, three days of memories that last a lifetime.

At the festival square next to the Vismijn, it's not only about finishing and celebrating – it's also the place where athletes, supporters, families, and friends come together. Here, you'll witness the unique ceremony where the Full Long Course Weekend finishers receive their fourth medal – a goosebump moment you won't experience anywhere else.

Our participant list once again shows how widely Long Course Weekend Belgium is embraced: families with children taking their first steps in the kids run, friends sharing a sporting weekend, recreational athletes challenging themselves, and elite athletes pushing their limits. This weekend brings us all together, and that is what makes it so special.

A special word of thanks goes to the more than 400 volunteers and countless associations who make this event possible. Without their enthusiasm and dedication, there would be no Long Course Weekend Belgium.

And of course, we want to thank the city of Nieuwpoort for being the perfect host of our fantastic event for the past five years. May there be many more to come!

So: take a deep breath, feel the energy of the sea and the polders, and let yourself be carried away for three days by the unique atmosphere of this sports festival.

Enjoy, give it your all, and experience the Festival of Champions.

Fien, Karo, Madelon, Marie, Simon, and Matthias
Team Long Course Weekend Belgium

Dear Athletes and Supporters,

It is an incredible honour to welcome you all to Long Course Weekend Belgium.

I still remember our very first event on the coastline of Pembrokeshire, Wales. What began as a local celebration of sport has grown into a worldwide family, and today, that journey brings us here, to this extraordinary setting in Belgium.

Standing here 5 years ago, I can honestly say this venue took my breath away the very first time I saw it. The landscape is not only beautiful, it feels alive, every road, every climb, every turn seems built for moments of sporting greatness.

But what truly makes this event so special isn't just the scenery, it's the people. From the very first conversations we had here, the warmth and enthusiasm of this community has been overwhelming. The way you have opened your doors, your hearts, and your passion for sport, has made Belgium feel like home for Long Course Weekend.

That's why we chose this location to launch our very first Festival of Champions. This isn't just another event, it's a celebration of everything our athletes and supporters have achieved around the world, brought together in one extraordinary place.

Whether you're racing, supporting, or simply here to experience the atmosphere, know that you are part of history this weekend. Thank you for being here. Cherish every moment, because together, we are creating something unforgettable.

We look forward to waving off, cheering you home and celebrating your achievements in the square!

Race safe and keep smiling!

Regards

FESTIVAL OF CHAMPIONS

1ST EDITION

Long Course Weekend Belgium 2025 is the first edition of the Long Course Weekend Festival of Champions.

From 2025 onward, each year one of the Long Course Weekend destinations will be the host city of the Festival of Champions. The Long Course Weekend Festival of Champions brings together sporting heroes from all the different Long Course Weekend destinations who will give their very best.

Not only the top 3 women and men of every Long Course Weekend in the world are invited and receive a free entry. Seven randomly selected women and seven randomly selected men are given the same honour. Because that is what we stand for: at Long Course Weekend everyone is a champion.

What can we expect from the Long Course Weekend Festival of Champions:

- Athletes who qualified during one of the previous races come together on Thursday 25 September to raise a glass to Long Course Weekend at 20h00 at the festival square.
- Every Full Long Course Weekend athlete receives a special Festival of Champions hoodie, guaranteed to become a collector's item.
- During the special medal ceremony on Sunday at 16h00 all our champions will be honoured, the absolute highlight of Long Course Weekend. Do not miss it.

Do you want to qualify for the Festival of Champions in Wales, from Friday 26 to Sunday 28 June 2026?

Make the podium at the Full Long Course Weekend or show your best moves on our red carpet and you might be selected.

Nieuwpoort is a sports-minded city where experience and movement go hand in hand. With a wide and diverse range of sports activities, accessible sports infrastructure, and countless motivated sports clubs, the city is fully committed to sport.

In addition, Nieuwpoort focuses strongly on a healthy and active lifestyle for everyone. We aim to encourage as many people as possible to be active and to make conscious choices when it comes to health. Sport and movement are an essential part of that.

At the same time, we continue to build a versatile and high-quality sports offering that brings people together and inspires them. Sports activities strengthen social cohesion and create opportunities for meeting and involvement in our city.

We also wish to organise and support activities that firmly put Nieuwpoort on the map as a sporty and experience-driven city. Such initiatives attract enthusiastic athletes from home and abroad and allow them to discover the unique strengths of our city.

In that respect, Long Course Weekend fits perfectly within our vision. This international sports festival, where participants choose for themselves which disciplines and distances to take on, brings thousands of participants to Nieuwpoort every year. The combination of effort, perseverance, and experience creates a unique event.

As host city, we are therefore particularly delighted to welcome Long Course Weekend back to Nieuwpoort. We look forward to three days full of enthusiasm, sporting achievements, and above all, joy and connection.

We wish all participants an unforgettable edition of Long Course Weekend 2025. Give it your all and fully enjoy Nieuwpoort.

LONG COURSE WEEKEND

The concept

Long Course Weekend is a unique sports festival. For three days, you can choose from races in three disciplines (swimming, cycling, running) and across different distances.

This way, you can take part in a sporting weekend tailored to you. You decide whether to join a swim race, a cycling tour, a run, or a combination of several sports and distances.

For the real diehards, there is the Full Long Course Weekend option: swimming, cycling, and running spread across 3 days. Every athlete who successfully completes the Full Long Course Weekend goes home with a fourth medal on top of the medals you receive per discipline. The special medal ceremony for all Full Long Course Weekend finishers on Sunday afternoon has meanwhile become a moment no one wants to miss!

The Long Course Weekend events are renowned for their unique and fantastic finish line atmosphere. Long Course Weekend took place for the first time in Tenby, Wales, fourteen years ago and has since grown into a race with more than 10,000 participants. Long Course Weekend appeals to a very broad audience and is therefore the sports event for athletes of all levels, families, groups of friends, and companies.

Discover everything of our event in this athlete guide!

GOOD CAUSE: TRIPLE CHALLENGE

Buy an adapted race buggy together with us for someone who needs it

At Long Course Weekend, we dedicate ourselves every year to a good cause. This year, we support Triple Challenge! This is a sporting movement that focuses on inclusion, connection, and sustainability. They believe that everyone, regardless of disability or background, should be able to cherish and experience sporting dreams. With their team of athletes, buddies, and supporters, they make it possible for people with disabilities to experience triathlons. From adapted running wheelchairs to connected duo runs: at Triple Challenge, it's all about pushing boundaries together.

This year, we want to help purchase an adapted race buggy together with you. This allows athletes to experience Long Course Weekend together with their parents or buddy. The only thing still missing? Your push forward, because we will double the amount you raise! You can make the difference!

DNA ANALYSIS GAVE ME NEW ENERGY

KIM DE BAAT

After a career in the professional peloton, Kim De Baat keeps surprising herself with new insights about her body. Thanks to Fagron Sport Test and NutriGen, two DNA analyses, she now knows how to train and live smarter—without having to work harder.

Kim De Baat knows better than anyone what sport can mean in someone's life. She became Belgian road champion, spent years in the professional peloton, and now guides the next generation of cycling talents as assistant national coach. Yet the Sport Test and NutriGen provided her with surprising insights—insights that not only changed her own experience of sport, but are just as applicable to anyone interested in health or fitness.

“After an initial consultation where I received a detailed explanation of both tests, my curiosity was triggered,” Kim explains. “I wanted to know what I might have missed in my career, or what I could have done differently. In sport, every detail matters, but it always starts with the basics. And those basics—nutrition and DNA—are important for everyone, whether you're just starting out or aiming for top performance. A DNA test is far more personal and in-depth than a standard diet. I found it incredibly interesting to experience this myself—also because I want to be able to better inform my athletes about it.”

The results brought more than one surprise. “For instance, it turned out I'm hypersensitive to caffeine, even though I used it a lot as a rider. Many athletes swear by it as a positive, stimulating aid, but for some people—like me—it can actually be less useful or even counterproductive.”

Kim now applies the insights mostly in her daily life. As a coach, she continues to train actively to keep up with her athletes, which made it ideal to test certain results right away.

“I discovered a sensitivity to starch, realized that caffeine actually had no beneficial effect, and learned that exercise alone doesn't really help me lose weight. Concrete changes in my diet delivered much more. With just a few small adjustments I lost weight, feel calmer mentally and—perhaps most importantly—I have more energy throughout the day and sleep better.”

What Kim learned shows how important it is to get the foundations right. “You can eat perfectly healthy, but still not respond well to certain foods—without even realizing it. Thanks to these DNA tests, you discover which foods and drinks give you energy instead of draining it. That insight can make a huge difference for anyone: from recreational athletes to professionals.”

Although her overall view on sport hasn't fundamentally changed, Kim learned that progress doesn't always require training harder or more. “By simply knowing better what suits your body, you can achieve results faster and more easily. That has been a real eye-opener for me.”

Kim's story shows this: whether you're a beginner or have been active for years, those who understand the basics gain the most. DNA insights reveal which foods and habits strengthen your foundation, so training becomes more effective and you feel more energized—in sport as well as in daily life. Discover what your body truly needs—scan the QR code above and start building your foundation.

NICKY REES: THE ONLY ONE WHO FINISHED ALL LONG COURSE WEEKENDS IN WALES

“EVERYONE OF ALL LEVELS CAN TAKE PART.”

NICKY REES

Nicky, who are you?

I'm Nicky Rees, 57 years old, married and father of two. In 1999 I ran my first marathon in London, followed by more than 15 marathons over the next seven years.

You're the only one who has completed every Long Course Weekend in Wales. How does that feel, and what motivates you to keep going?

I feel very fortunate to have finished all 14 Long Course Weekend Wales events, though it certainly came with its share of ups and downs.

What has been your most memorable Long Course Weekend experience so far, and why?

My most memorable Long Course Weekend was in 2016. I took part with my friend Gareth, who suffered from motor neurone disease and sadly has since passed away. During the swim I pulled him along in an inflatable boat, we used a recumbent bike for the cycling, and during the run he was in a buggy. If you Google 'Long Course Weekend Wales', you'll find the beautiful video Gareth made back then.

First Long Course Weekend Wales.

What advice would you give to athletes preparing for their first Long Course Weekend?

The advice I'd give to any athlete is: start small, but eventually try to complete all the distances. If you get injured, focus on what you can do instead of what you can't. And never underestimate your own ability.

What are you most looking forward to in Belgium?

What I'm most looking forward to is meeting all the athletes and talking with the local people.

What makes Long Course Weekend different from a traditional triathlon or endurance race?

What makes Long Course Weekend so much more special than other races is the family experience: everyone, at every level, can take part thanks to the different distances available for all participants.

THE NIEUWPOORT MARATHON

The Nieuwpoort Marathon is the closing running event of the Long Course Weekend, a fast race attracting an international field of over 5000 runners.

The course is flat and speedy, taking you through the typical polder landscape around Nieuwpoort, Diksmuide, Veurne and Koksijde. A long straight stretch along the Frontzatepad is interrupted by winding roads along the Ijzer. Just before the finish, all runners pass under the Albert I Monument, right before the Long Course Weekend Belgium festival square where the finish line is located.

The Nieuwpoort Marathon offers races over 4 distances: 5km, 10km, Half Marathon and Marathon. There is also a kids run with different age categories.

As of this year, both the Marathon and Half Marathon are World Athletics certified, making them perfect for setting your personal best.

KIDS RUN

Welcome kids!

Long Course Weekend warmly welcomes sporty children with their very own fantastic kids run. The race takes place on Sunday morning, at the same start and finish zone as the 5km, 10km, half marathon and marathon. Our promising young athletes will cross the epic finish line while their loyal supporters and parents cheer from the sidelines.

- Red carpet at start and finish
- Fun medal
- Sport and fun

4 distances:

- 3-5 years: 300m
- 6-8 years: 600m
- 9-11 years: 1200m

Is your child attending a school in Nieuwpoort? The registration fee goes entirely to the school to purchase new sports equipment, and Long Course Weekend will match this amount!

Rules and Safety

The course is not completely closed to traffic, but traffic is limited. This means runners have priority over other vehicles. Marshals are present at all intersections and locations where side streets meet the course. We ask all participants to stay cautious, run on the sidewalk where possible, and follow traffic rules when necessary. There is one spot where tram tracks must be crossed. Police will be present to ensure a safe crossing. All participants must follow the instructions of the police and marshals at all times.

Bag drop

A bag drop is available at the festival area where you can safely leave your belongings. We recommend that you, if possible, leave your personal items with your supporters, friends, or family. Only bags are allowed. You will receive a tear-off strip with your race number to attach to your bag.

Timing

Times are recorded using the chip in your race bib. A ranking will be made for each distance.

Hit your running goal with our Pacers!

A pacer is someone who shares their target race time to help others achieve a specific finish time. Pacers run at a steady, even pace and finish just under their predicted time. This helps you cross the finish line at your desired time without having to worry about pacing yourself. All you need to do is follow your pacer and enjoy the run.

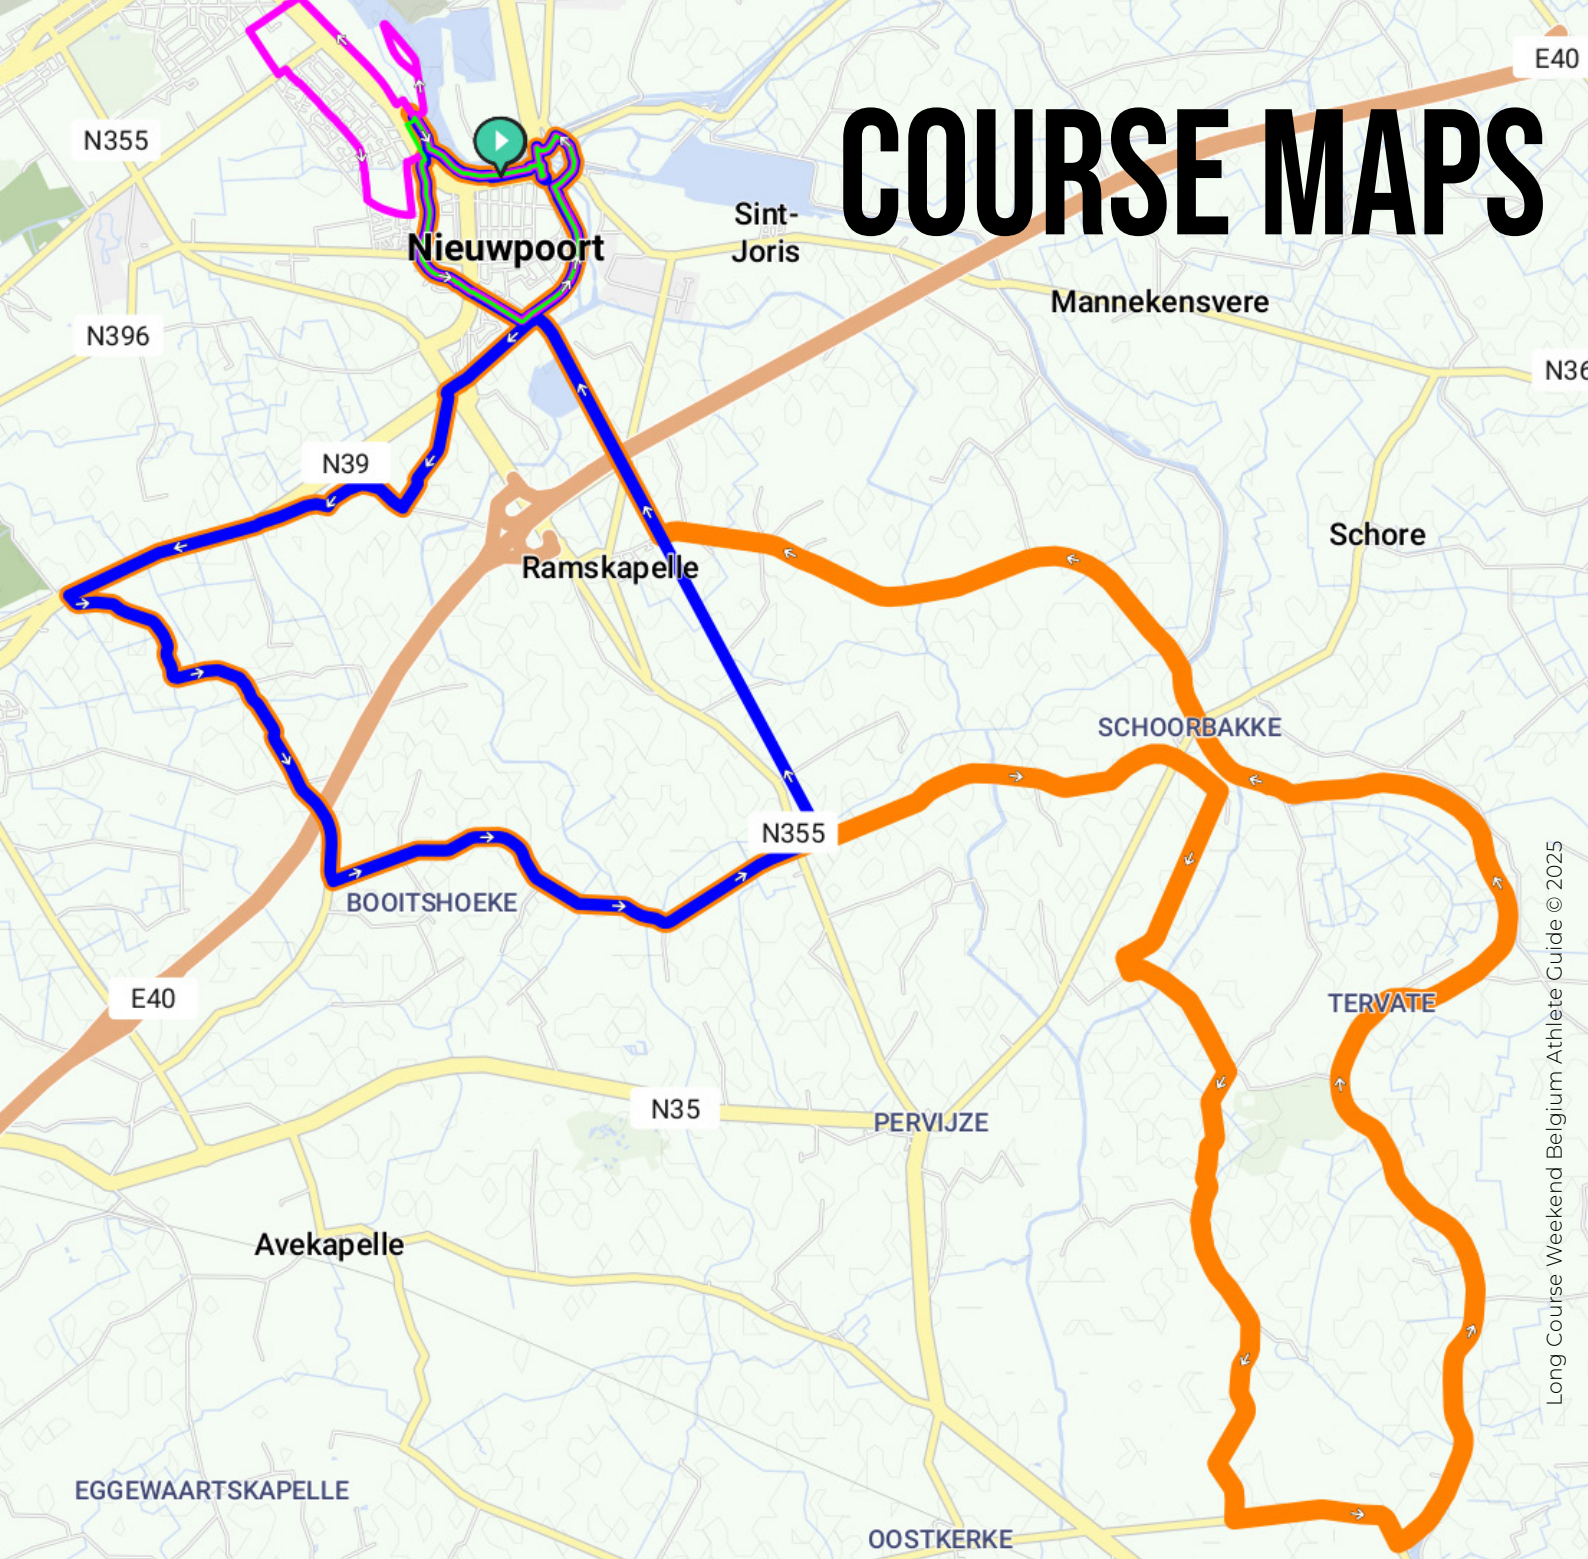

We are once again teaming up with Het Pacingteam to support runners in both the half marathon and full marathon. You can spot them by their flags showing their target finish time.

The scheduled pacers per target pace:

| Marathon | Half Marathon |
|----------|---------------|
| 3:30 | 1:30 |
| 3:40 | 1:40 |
| 3:50 | 1:50 |
| 4:00 | 2:00 |
| 4:10 | 2:10 |
| 4:20 | 2:20 |
